

Invitation

It all starts here, in the heart of New Zealand!

Education Wellington is pleased to invite agents to come to Wellington, New Zealand following the ANZA Workshop 2010.

The Wellington region is a place of possibilities. It is centred around a cosmopolitan Capital city that has transformed over the last 20 years to become one of the bright places on the planet – a place where creativity, lifestyle, commerce, government and education thrive alongside one another and feed on each other's success.

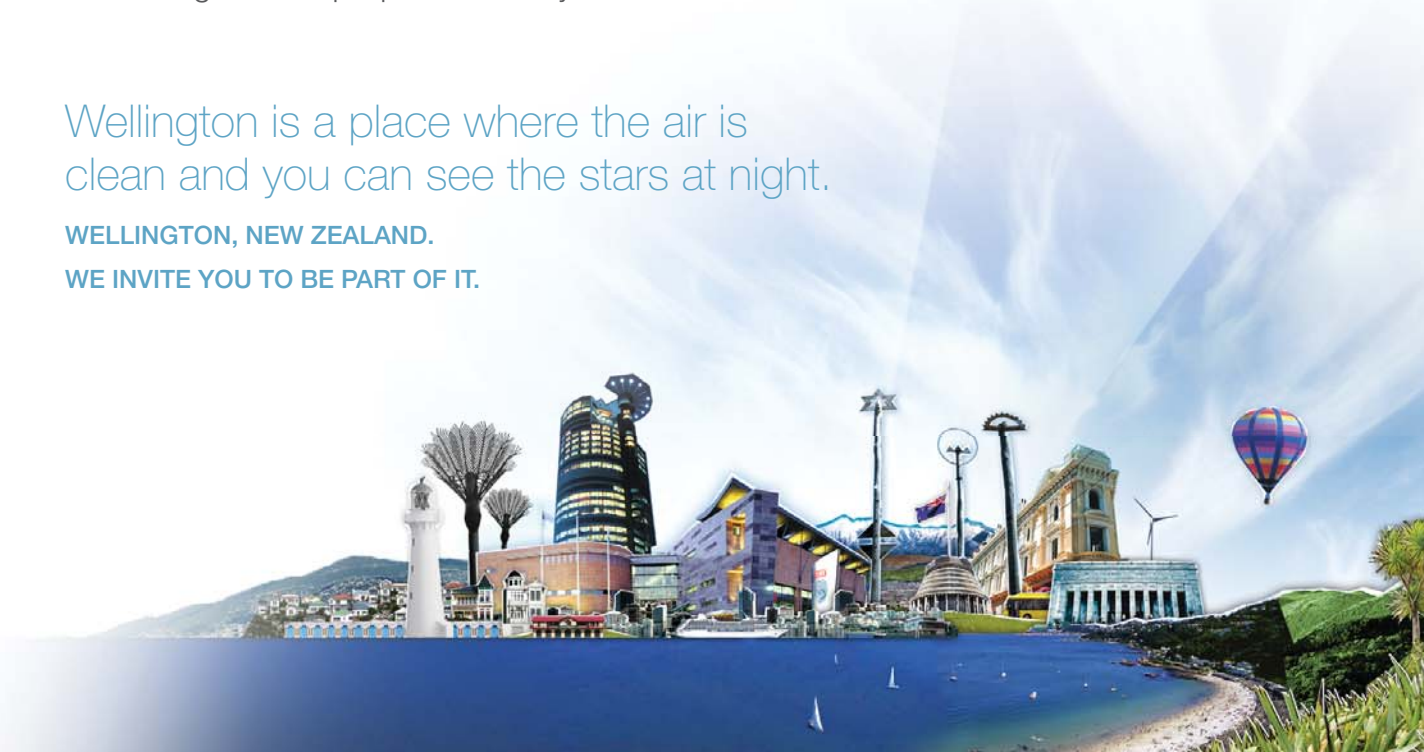

We are region of smart young things and older ambitious minds. Our institutions offer respected and proven learning, provide internationally recognised and transferrable qualifications and the opportunity to get a relevant and future focused education.

Participating agents will have the opportunity to visit some of our top institutions, be inspired by our beautiful scenery and experience what makes Wellington such an exciting and unique place to study.

Wellington is a place where the air is clean and you can see the stars at night.

WELLINGTON, NEW ZEALAND.

WE INVITE YOU TO BE PART OF IT.
